Memorial Day Weekend

Good Morning Everyone, we are trying something a little different with our news and notes this week and I hope you like it. Anyway, I am hoping your Memorial Day Weekend is going well and I hope that you are catching up, relaxing, and doing something you want to do this weekend..

Tutoring

We will begin tutoring on Tuesday, September 5th for those students who would like some extra help on their studies. Tutoring will take place on Tuesday and Thursday from 3:45 till 4:30. We will have an Activity bus that will take students to the north, east, and south sides of Pueblo. The stops may not be the normal drop off spots, but they will be close to those spots.

SFA Updates

Our Success For All program continues to gain momentum for our teachers and students. Students were introduced to their first actual reading piece last week and it seems that the collaboration piece of learning has done well in most classrooms. Students are problem solving, discussing, and being rewarded for their efforts.
